NOTICE TO OBLIGOR

SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA
MARICOPA COUNTY

FC 2011-004984

08/02/2016

Child support payments are due on the first day of every month and they are late on the last day of the month. Obligor who pay their payments on the last day of the month run the risk that payments may not post until the next month. If an obligor is paying a late payment (a payment during the last week of the month) he/she shall bring a receipt to Court showing that the payment was paid within the month due. Without such proof, payments may be considered late and counted by the Court toward the month in which the payments post. This may result in contempt findings and sanctions up to and including payment of a purge or incarceration.

All parties representing themselves must keep the Court updated with address changes. A form may be downloaded at: <http://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/SuperiorCourt/Self-ServiceCenter>.
